

posterior predictive distributions for the number of children in each group.